

Supplementary Figure S2:

Background correction with the antigenomic BGP. The left panel is boxplots of the antigenomic BGP intensities across the GC-contents. The right panel shows the unremoved GC-content bias in the background corrected probe intensities which are computed by subtracting the median values of the antigenomic BGP intensities from the row intensities with the same GC-content.

